REVIEWS

Wedding party

We had a brilliant day yesterday at the Case is Altered. We hired the barn for 41 guests and pre ordered a 3 course lunch. The service was outstanding and Marie, Derek and the rest of the staff had everything very well organised so all went smoothly. The food was also excellent and the house wine and Prosecco went down very well with all the guests.

Great venue for a party

We hired the barn for a Saturday afternoon buffet after my son's christening.

It's a lovely space and the buffet was great- all clean plates and a number of people remarked on how good the food was. From the initial booking through to the day itself, everyone was so helpful.

We announced our engagement on the day and the staff were great in helping us with the surprise and getting glasses and fizz ready for a toast. The manager, Rich, was really friendly and accommodating with some menu changes and helping us decide on how many to cater for. I'd highly recommend it for an event or party.

Perfect function room - lovely food

The barn is a private area and a beautiful space with lovely beams. Andrew, the manager met with me a few days before to run through the plan and give me menu options etc. He was very accommodating and also very kindly strung up some fairy lights for the night. We were able to go earlier and decorate as we wanted. On the night everything was set up beautifully and we were well looked after. We brought our own playlist which we could play through the speakers. The food buffet was very good too. Thank you so much to all the team for everything. Would highly recommend if you're looking for a party venue.

Gorgeous pub, perfect for lunch, drinks or large get together

We hired the barn area for our daughter's Christening party (60 people) and couldn't recommend this place enough! Andrew and the team were super helpful from the first time I popped in through to the day itself, providing bespoke menus and making sure everything ran smoothly. The food is reasonably priced and delicious, we opted for a mixture of hot canapes and sandwiches for a 60 person buffet and had lots of positive feedback from guests. The pub itself is super cosy and full of charm. Drink prices are reasonable too. Gorgeous front garden, can't wait to come back in the Summer. So pleased to have found such a great local on our doorstep
